Excellence in Scholarship Award

The Award

- The award is given once each academic year, subject to qualified nominees.
- The award is announced at the All-Campus meeting in June, with the recipient receiving a $2,000 prize.

Eligibility

- Must have at least three years of continuous service as a full-time faculty/instructor.
- Recipients may be re-eligible for the award three academic years after receiving the award.
- Recipients are expected to serve on selection committees for future recipients for a period of three academic years after receiving the award along with CAO and an academic dean.
- Must be nominated by a student, faculty member, department chair, dean or colleague; no self-nominations allowed.
- Team nominations will be accepted.
- Nominations must be received by May 19, 2017.

Criteria

As a teaching community of scholars, faculty are expected to contribute to the fields of knowledge within their expertise. Scholarship and professional activity are manifested in many ways – for example, by research, paper presentations, publications, editorships, creative performance and exhibits, and by continued study in the discipline.

Scholarship can take many forms. It includes, for example, articles in journals, research monographs, scholarly books, treatises, chapters in larger works, papers presented at academic meetings, and published instructional materials.
2016-2017
Excellence in Scholarship Award
Nomination Form

Nomination Procedure: Any Bellevue University student, faculty member, department chair, dean or colleague may nominate a faculty member/instructor or team (no self-nominations allowed). Submit nominations for this award via electronic mail or in a sealed envelope labeled Excellence in Scholarship Award Nomination through the Dean of the faculty member's college. Nominations must be received on or before 5:00 p.m. on May 19, 2017 to be eligible. The Dean’s Office will contact the nominee to see if he/she will accept the nomination prior to forwarding all nominations to the Office of the Chief Academic Officer. Nomination forms are available online at www.bellevue.edu/about/leadership/faculty-information/awards or paper version within each college. The nomination must contain a statement in support of the nominee.

Announcement and Disbursement: The recipient will be announced at the All-Campus meeting in June. The funds will be disbursed on or after July 1st.

Name of Faculty Nominated:

________________________________________________________________________

Attach your recommendation to this form and describe specifically how the nominee contributed to the fields of knowledge within their expertise – for example, by research, paper presentations, publications, editorships, creative performance and exhibits, or by continued study in the discipline.

Nominated by: ___________________________ Date: ___________________________

Supported by: ___________________________ Date: ___________________________

(Dean of the faculty member’s college)

Received by: ___________________________ Date: ___________________________

Please return to the nominee’s college office by 5:00 p.m. on May 19, 2017. The college office will submit all nomination forms to the Office of the CAO, no later than May 26, 2017.